Peace and Quiet

Staying at Veld & Duin is escaping from the daily grind and charging your batteries.

If, however, you are looking for a full time entertainment program or if having a holiday means partying until the early morning hours, we won't be able to help you.

Every guest at Veld & Duin is entitled to have a good night's sleep. We kindly ask you to respect the peace and quiet between 22u00 and 08u00, also when entering the campsite by car.

Youth

The night's sleep must be respected between 10 p.m. and 8 a.m. and other campers may not be inconvenienced by their presence.

In the event of complaints, we are forced to intervene and this may lead to the group having to leave (no refund).

We need a telephone number from the parents of each of the young people under the age of 18.

Cleaning and waste

Upon departure, your plot must be left tidy out of respect for the next guest.

Please take your waste to the container park for this. The waste should be divided into:

- residual waste
- biowaste: only fruit and vegetable waste
- PMD: plastic
- paper and cardboard
- glass

Pets

House rules

You are responsible for your dog. Please read the following very carefully:

- dogs are admitted if kept on a lead on the camping site
- droppings must be removed immediately
- pets must be kept on your private plot
- maximum 2 dogs per plot
- dangerous breeds are not allowed

Smoking

It is strictly forbidden to smoke in the sanitary building and public buildings.

Parking

One parking space is included in the price per stay. To enter, you will receive a code for the duration of the stay upon arrival.

If you come with two cars, it is possible to rent a second parking space at the reception at €4 / parking / day.

You can park the first car in the parking zone near your stay. Please put the car within the parking lines. A second car can only be parked in the visitors' parking at the front of the campsite.

An additional parking space must be paid for a trailer. It must also be parked in the visitors' car park.
